A light read of most common topics found in general discussions of media technologies. A good orientation.

Go to YSU’s main page. Hover over “Academics” in the dropdown bar. Find “Maag Library” and click that. In the “Quick Links” column click on “Research Databases.” Under “Listed by Name,” click on “S-T.” Click on “Safari Books Online.” You will need your Banner ID to log on successfully, unless you are using a network-connected computer. Then search for “Communication Technology Update,”
